COMMENTARY.

Note 225, pages 802 and 805.

The Regulations.

These regulations were dated 1st January, 1827 (see page 3 et seq., volume XIII).

Note 226, page 806.

The Sydney College.

In the year 1825, the Sydney Public Free Grammar school was established, and received a land grant from Sir Thomas Brisbane, which now is occupied by the Sydney Grammar school. It was opened on the 4th of November with L. H. Halloran, D.D., as headmaster and twenty pupils. It was closed at the end of 1826. In 1828, an unsuccessful attempt was made to revive it. In 1830, the school was again inaugurated. The name was changed to Sydney College, and it was decided to raise £10,000 in two hundred shares of £50 each. Each shareholder was entitled in perpetuity to have one student at the college. Francis Forbes, the chief justice, was appointed president, Samuel Terry treasurer, and George Allen secretary, with a committee of fifteen. The foundation-stone of the building, which is now occupied by the Sydney Grammar school, was laid by F. Forbes on the 26th of January, 1830. The building cost £7,000 to erect, E. Hallen was architect and Cooper the contractor. On the 19th of January, 1835, it was opened as a school with W. T. Cape as headmaster, and J. Murray and Banfather as junior masters.

Note 227, page 809.

His Journal.

In this letter, E. S. Hall adversely commented on the treatment of assigned servants by A. Berry and E. Wollstonecraft on their estates at Shoalhaven, and discussed the treatment of assigned servants generally.

Note 228, page 811.

A letter.

A copy of this letter will be found on page 604.

Note 229, page 815.

The Aqueduct.

The reference was to the bore or tunnel for the supply of water to Sydney from the Botany swamps (see note 167, volume XI).

Note 230, page 816.

A correspondence.

This correspondence was dated 17th July, 1827, 30th August, 1828, and 19th June, 1829 (see pages 447 and 448, volume XIII, pages 368 and 369, volume XIV, and pages 12 and 13, volume XV).

Note 231, page 823.

Charter of Justice.

The charter of justice (see page 509 et seq., volume IV, series I) was issued in 1823 under the provisions of the statute of 4 Geo. IV, c. xvi. Certain amendments were necessary under the provisions of the statute, 9 Geo. IV, c. lxxxiii.
COMMENTARY.

Note 232, page 834.

The Order-in-Council . . . which accompanied my despatch No. 148 of the 25th Instant.

On the original of this despatch, there is a note stating that the order-in-council was not transmitted.

Note 233, page 837.

Commission of Governor Bourke.

By comparison of this commission with that given to Governor Darling (see page 99 et seq., volume XII), it will be noted that there were certain changes.

Two of these were due to the passage of legislation by the British parliament. The statute, 4 Geo. IV, c. xvi, had been superseded by the statute, 9 Geo. IV, c. lxxxiii, and in consequence the latter statute was quoted in Bourke's commission. The passing of the Roman Catholic relief act, 10 Geo. IV, c. vii, caused the omission of all reference in Bourke's commission to "An Act for preventing dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants."

Other changes were:

1. the administration of the oaths to the governor by the senior member of the executive council instead of by the chief justice;
2. the omission of instructions for the administration by the governor of oaths to the lieut.-governor and chief justice;
3. the inclusion of references to the legislative council;
and (4) the provision for the succession to the administration, in the event of the death or absence of the governor, of the senior military officer in the colony instead of the senior executive councillor.

Note 234, page 837.

Our Letters Patent.

A copy of the letters patent, dated 13th December, 1830, is not available. They were issued to replace the letters patent, dated 16th July, 1825 (see page 99 et seq., volume XII), on the demise of H.M. King George IV.

Note 235, page 840.

A warrant.

A copy of this warrant will be found on pages 623 and 624, volume XIV.
