

Access to Thesis – Consent Form*This form includes:

- Part One: Public access to thesis agreement (Pages 1 and 2)
- Part Two - Request to restrict access (embargo) (Page 3)

Part One: Public access to thesis agreement

This agreement must be completed by all higher degree research candidates when submitting the final version of their thesis to the Graduate Research School. Following Academic Board approval of the award of the degree (see Section 9 of the Thesis Requirements, Submission and Retention Procedure) the Graduate Research School will provide a copy of the agreement with the thesis to the library to be included in the collection, with either public or restricted access.

Assistance in understanding the implications of access to your thesis can be sought from: your supervisor, the Examinations Team in the Graduate Research School (GRS) at exams.GRS@latrobe.edu.au, copyright@latrobe.edu.au and repository@latrobe.edu.au.

Public access to thesis

All candidates must supply a complete final version of their examined thesis for archiving. A second redacted (edited) version may be required depending on the permissions you have for items in your thesis (see below).

Candidates should be aware of the following:

- La Trobe University does not require candidates to relinquish any rights over their theses in favour of the University or any other party; candidates retain all rights over their original work, including, the right to negotiate or make agreements with any other party in relation to their theses.
- La Trobe University does require candidates to grant to the university non-exclusive, ongoing permission to reproduce and communicate electronic copies of their theses. This permission will come into effect upon candidates signing and submitting this agreement.

In normal circumstances the University will make complete, electronic copies of graduate research theses publicly and openly available, on an ongoing basis, through Research Online, the La Trobe University Repository (an internet-based, open portal that provides access to the full content of La Trobe University-produced research materials to any members of the public).

GRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOOL

While La Trobe University makes theses publicly available in electronic form, this does not confer any rights upon any other party to do more than access and consult such theses; this does not give any other party the right to further reproduce or communicate the thesis.

As the author of your thesis you do have options in assigning an express licence to your work. Contact the Copyright Advisor for more information at copyright@latrobe.edu.au.

The exceptions to Research Online providing full public access occur when:

1. there are copyright or other restrictions on any material in the thesis (see below), and/or
2. you and/or your supervisor request an embargo on access to your entire thesis for a defined period of time (see Part 2 of this form)

Copyright

You must obtain permission for any copyright protected material included in the thesis that you have not created or do not have the right to include (e.g. article/s you wrote and submitted to a journal, where the journal publisher now owns the distribution rights). If you do not have permission to include any copyright-protected material in your thesis, you must create a second version of your thesis in which this material is deleted, with a notation for each deleted copyright protected item. For full instructions please refer to Section 9 of the Theses Requirements, Submission and Retention Procedure.

Declaration by candidate

Please complete the declaration below if you are satisfied that you have all permissions in place for any material in your thesis, or have removed any material for which you do not have permission in a second redacted version.

- I warrant that the version of my thesis to be made openly available, as provided, does not infringe the copyright or license conditions of any person or organisation, and
- I certify that the electronic version of my thesis, as provided, is a direct equivalent of the version of my thesis as approved by the Academic Board, subject to any exclusions made for copyright reasons, and

Select one of the following:

- I grant La Trobe University non-exclusive, ongoing permission to reproduce and communicate the electronic version of my thesis, in all forms of media, now or hereafter known, or
- I grant La Trobe University non-exclusive, ongoing permission to reproduce and communicate the redacted electronic version of my thesis, in all forms of media, now or hereafter known.

Part Two - Request to restrict access (embargo)

In certain circumstances you or your supervisor may request that public access to your thesis be restricted for a defined period of time. This restriction, known as an embargo, would normally be requested for a period of 12 months to two years, but in rare circumstances indefinitely.

Approval from the Chair of the Board of Graduate Research is required for any embargo request. Your thesis is held in a secure, inaccessible area of Research Online until the approved embargo expires, and if no subsequent application is made, the thesis will revert to the open access part of the Research Online Repository.

Applications for extension to an existing embargo must be submitted to GRS for approval at exams.grs@latrobe.edu.au

Please indicate your reason(s) for embargo (select all that apply):

- Pending publications or patents
- Public interest
